

September 2010

Dear Brightwood Students and Parents,

Our first movie night of the 2010-2011 school year will be held this Friday, September 24, 2010.

This is a reminder that during all PTA sponsored events, a parent MUST be in attendance and responsible for all children in their care. This presumes that you will keep your child inside the Cafetorium/Brightwood Campus at all times. PTA and Brightwood School do not provide sitting services or have the insurance to do so.

During past PTA sponsored events, parents have dropped off their child/children without providing parental supervision. Students have loitered in front of the school unattended and school administration has had to patrol the entire school area during the night as students have wandered off. School administrators have also had to stay until all students have been picked up, staying as late as two hours after PTA events have ended. Some students, while questioned about parents in attendance, have even wandered off to Sunnyslope Park; this has caused great concern as the liability is great and it is suspected that parents believe that their child is attending the PTA event.

Should parents allow their children to attend PTA sponsored events without parental supervision, future or all PTA events may all be canceled or limited to those in younger grades. This would be unfortunate as most students do enjoy the events.

Thank you for your understanding and attention in this matter. Should you have any questions, please feel free to speak to Principal Tambara or PTA President Steve Lim.
